

CURRICULUM VITAE KRISTINA L. CHALFIN

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Name: Kristina L. Chalfin

Address: 5401 Bakers Mill Rd., Durham, NC 27707

Phone: 919-767-3749 (h) 919-402-7026 (c)

Email: klchalfin@gmail.com

PROFILE:

Experienced course designer, professor, and academic administrator with 19 years of experience in applying effective online pedagogy in the design, development and delivery of Master's and Doctoral level courses and curriculum.

Areas of research interest: formation within online education, social networks and online transformational community, postmodern/millennial spirituality.

EDUCATION:

D.Min., Spiritual Formation, 2008

Ashland Theological Seminary
Ashland, OH

Dissertation Topic: Evaluation of the Relative Impact of Five Pedagogical Methods of Forming Transformational Community in an Online Spiritual Formation Class

Master Instructor Certification, 2005

Regent University
Virginia Beach, VA

M.A., Practical Theology, 2000

Regent University, School of Divinity
Virginia Beach, VA

B.S., Business Administration, Messiah College, 1989

Messiah College
Grantham, PA

ONLINE COURSE DEVELOPMENT & TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

2010-Present: Adjunct & Visiting Professor of Spiritual Formation: Regent University, School of Divinity, Virginia Beach, VA.

Responsibilities include teaching Spiritual Formation Foundations, Christian Spirituality, Spiritual Formation and Community, Spiritual Formation and Vocational Integration, and Models of Biblical Discipleship to Master's and Doctorate of Ministry students in hybrid and online formats. Developed, and launched online Masters of Arts and Masters of Divinity programs in Spiritual Formation, which included feasibility study and curriculum creation.

2003-2008: Instructor of Spiritual Formation: Regent University, School of Divinity, Virginia Beach, VA.

Responsibilities included teaching Spiritual Formation 1, Spiritual Formation 2, Spiritual Formation 3, Spiritual Formation Lab, Christian Spirituality, and Church and Ministry. Supervised all practical ministry student internships, advised 80 Master's students, co-led yearly Doctorate of Ministry retreat, and Divinity school committee assignments. Developed and taught the first online spiritual formation course at Regent University.

2003-2005: Adjunct Professor of Spiritual Formation: Regent University, School of Undergraduate Studies, Virginia Beach, VA.

Served on academic team that conceived and implemented spiritual formation courses into the undergraduate general education curriculum. Courses developed and taught included, Foundations of Personal Formation, Personal Growth and Formation, and Social and Worldview Development.

ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATION EXPERIENCE:

2000-2003: Distance Learning Program Manager: Regent University, School of Divinity, Virginia Beach, VA.

Responsible for managing all aspects of a rapidly growing Divinity distance learning program, which included: technical administration of learning management system, working alongside faculty in the development of nineteen online courses, faculty training for effective online course instruction, accreditation compliance with Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), retention, textbook and information management, tri-annual student residencies, student communication, and academic advising.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

1994-1997: Sr. Cost Accountant: ENI Technologies, Rochester, NY.

Responsibilities included preparation of annual expense budgets, product cost revaluation, inventory revaluation, advise executive leadership on manufacturing problem areas, processed month end close transaction reconciliation, GL account analyses, and inventory reconciliation.

1990-1994: Financial Analyst I: ABB Kent-Taylor, Rochester, NY.

Responsibilities included preparation of annual manufacturing forecast and operating budget for all U.S. built products ($58M, 42,000 units, 22 product lines), provide executive leadership with weekly and monthly performance metrics and analysis, monthly build plans, and direct labor projection.

ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATION EXPERIENCE:

2000-2003: Distance Learning Program Manager: Regent University, School of Divinity, Virginia Beach, VA. Responsible for managing all aspects of a rapidly growing divinity distance learning program, which included: technical administration of learning management system, working alongside faculty in the development of nineteen online courses, accreditation compliance with Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), faculty training for effective online course instruction, retention, textbook and information management, tri-annual student residencies, student communication, and academic advising.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

1994-1997: Sr. Cost Accountant: ENI Technologies, Rochester, NY. Responsibilities included, preparation of annual expense budgets, product cost revaluation, inventory revaluation, advise executive leadership on manufacturing problem areas, processed month end close transaction reconciliation, GL account analyses, and inventory reconciliation.

1990-1994: Financial Analyst I: ABB Kent-Taylor, Rochester, NY. Responsibilities included, preparation of annual manufacturing forecast and operating budget for all U.S. built products ($58M, 42,000 units, 22 product lines), provide executive leadership with weekly and monthly performance metrics and analysis, monthly build plans, and direct labor projection.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

Board Service: Trinity School of Durham and Chapel Hill, Durham, NC (2015-Present)
Grace Place Ministries, Durham, NC (2009-2014)
Hope Ministry Institute, Apex, NC (2008-2012)

Other: Regular speaker/teacher at women's events, retreats, and Bible studies
Non-profit financial board member
Social missions to China, Korea, Nepal
Social missions to New York School of Urban Ministries
Taught English to international student spouses
Ronald MacDonald house volunteer
Regular volunteer with Bouncing Bulldogs of Chapel Hill, NC

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

North American Professors of Christian Education (NAPCE)
Society of Biblical Literature (SBL)

ACADEMIC AWARDS:

"Women in Ministry Award," Regent University, School of Divinity, 1997-2000
"Harvey Scholastic Award," Regent University, School of Divinity, 1997-2000

PRESENTATIONS:

"Spiritual Formation in Online Theological Education," presented at Experiencing God Conference, Westmont College, May 2018.

INTERESTS:

Primary interests include enjoying time with husband, Todd, and two children, Reagan (age 12) and Reid (age 10) as well as enjoying community of friends and family, reading biographies, mentoring young people, photography, competitive jump rope and gardening.